

olatokunbo adeola enigbokan

afrosapien@gmail.com 155 norman ave, apt. 3, brooklyn, ny 11222 (646)644-8283 www.archivingthecity.com

LOCATION

born Seattle, USA, 1978
raised Lagos, Nigeria, 1979-91
lives New York City 1995-Present

EDUCATION

The City University of New York
PhD Candidate, Environmental Psychology

Dance New Amsterdam, New York
courses in modern dance and movement

The New School for Social Research, New York
MPhil, Anthropology, Historical Studies, 2006

School of Visual Arts, New York courses in Printmaking (Silkscreen) 2000, 2001

Columbia University, New York
BA, Anthropology, Visual Arts 2000

SELECTED FELLOWSHIPS & AWARDS

2007-Present
Chancellor's Fellowship, City University of New York

2005-2007
Diamond Fellowship, New School for Social Research
Award for Best Student Paper, Society for the Anthropology of North America

2000
Kluge Award for research and travel in Mexico, Guatemala and Belize

SELECTED ARTISTIC INTERVENTIONS

2011
Foolish Journeys. installation and performance, The New School, New York

Terrible Karma: Reverberations of the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire. street intervention, Cooper Square, New York (with Merle Patchett)

2010
How old are you, really? solo performance with sound installation, Anthology Film Archive, New York

I felt like a black widow spider. solo performance with sound installation, 92YTribeca, New York

2009
New York will always be the place for you. Conflux Festival, New York (with Tracee Worley)

2008
is our dream still possible. The Politricks Show, New York

2007

Architecture Souvenir. installation and performance, sidewalk outside MoMA, New York (with Jana Leo)

2006

We have a motherfucking plan. performance DUMBO Art Space, New York

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

2010-2011

Sociology of Cinema, Queens College, New York

2008-2009

Urban Design Studio, Hunter College, New York

2006-2007

Representing Catastrophe, The New School

SELECTED INVITED TALKS & WORKSHOPS

2011

From archives to databases: an emerging aesthetic of dumpster diving
Royal Geographical Society, London

Just Stories: Storytelling and the Imagination of Environmental Justice
Nature Ecology Society Colloquium, New York

2010

Experimenting with Geography
University of Edinburgh, Scotland

2009

Critical Movements are An Other Politics (with Barbara Adams)
Royal Institute of British Architects, London

2008

Mobile Phone as Archive
Columbia University, New York

2007

Tel Aviv Under Construction
Van Leer Institute, Jerusalem